Re: Mazzocchi v. Windsor Owners Corp. et al., 11-cv-07913

Dear Magistrate Judge Aaron:

The Deposition of Elaine Platt was completed on March 10, 2020. Prior to that deposition, Ms. Platt was provided by counsel for plaintiff with copies of the emails she had supplied to counsel for the defendants as they had been redacted. Ms. Platt of course had available to her the unredacted versions, since she sent them to defense counsel.

During the deposition on several occasions she stated material had been redacted from certain specified pages which in her view, based on your rulings during the telephonic conference held on (date), in which she participated, while perhaps confidential to her as a Board member was not privileged. She referred specifically to the pages Bates stamped EP00043-49; EP000052; EP000055; EP000059; EP000062 and EP000068.

During a conference with Judge Abrams on May 18, 2020, plaintiff's counsel raised the point with the Court, and all counsel agreed that the pages in question should be referred to you for your ruling on whether there had been excessive redaction and if so which text ought to be provided to plaintiff's counsel. All counsel also agreed that your determination would be final and not subject to further review by Judge Abrams. Judge Abrams agreed with this proposed solution.

I have reviewed the unredacted material and continue to be of the view that the redactions are appropriate. Counsel for plaintiff of course has not seen the unredacted material.

Best regards,

ENDORSEMENT: It appears to me that the unredacted documents in question have been publicly filed on the Court's docket (see ECF No. 270-1). Accordingly, defense counsel shall show cause no later than July 15, 2020, why the request to me for review of the unredacted documents should not be denied as moot. See SOHC, Inc. v. Zentis Sweet Ovations Holding LLC, No. 14-CV-02270 (JMF), 2014 WL 5643683, at *6 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 4, 2014) ("As the proverbial cat is out of the bag, Defendant's request for redaction is thus DENIED as moot."). SO ORDERED.
